

The 892 cases in white correspond to a negative test.
They now have zero probability.

The 108 cases in dark grey correspond to a positive test.
They are all equally likely.